OUR SPEAKER

Erik Wahlen served in Mongolia with the Christian and Missionary Alliance since 2008. He ran a coffee house and roastery as business as missions. His wife, Christina, taught English in order to reach people in the middle and upper class in the capital.

Erik and Christina have been married for 19 years and have 3 children, Jack (14), Becca (12), and Ana (10).

Christina is a native of Menomonie and Erik has lived there long enough to feel like one. Presently, they are the International Workers in Residence at Alliance Theological School and Nyack College in Nyack, NY.
